

COL. JAMES COLLIER.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Express states, that the sealed verdict of the jury in the case of the United States vs. Colonel James Collier, has been opened, and it awards to him $37,000, besides exonerating him from all charges. So that is settled. The government claimed of him about $140,000. It is stated, however, that he has paid into the treasury $100,000 since suit was brought.

JUDGE BRONSON.—The New York State "Hard" convention at Syracuse unanimously nominated Judge Bronson for governor. A letter was received, previous to his nomination, containing his unqualified refusal.

THE AMERICAN SLAVE CODE, IN THEORY AND PRACTICE.—Its distinctive features, shown by its Statutes, Judicial Decisions, and Illustrative Facts. By William Goodell, author of "The Democracy of Christianity," "Slavery and Anti-Slavery," &c. New York: American and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society, 48 Beekman-st. The work will contain above 400 pages, 12mo., neatly bound in cloth, and will be sold for cash at 75 cents single copy, $6 per dozen, and $45 per 100. Also, in paper covers, at a deduction of 10 cents per copy on the above prices.

Orders may be forwarded to Lewis Tappan, 48 Beekman street, New York.
EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM HON. WILLIAM JAY TO THE AUTHOR.—"Your analysis of the slave laws is very able, and your exhibition of their practical application by the southern courts, evinces great and careful research. Your book is as impregnable against the charge of exaggeration as Euclid's Geometry, since, like that, it consists of propositions and demonstrations. The book is not only true, but it is unquestionably true."

19.—1000 " Silver Pencils, 1 "	1,000

15,401 Presents, amounting to $70,000

The person who orders either of the above Magazines from us subjects himself to no risk whatever! as the full value of his money, $3.00, is received in the Magazine alone, and is entitled and will receive, upon receipt of the money (sent at our risk) to a numbered ticket to be used at the distribution of Presents, which we are now confident will take place as early as the first day of January next. The Presents will be put into the hands of a responsible Committee appointed by the subscribers themselves after the tickets have all been disposed of.

The undersigned would impress upon persons desirous of embarking in this truly magnificent and Wonderful Enterprise the necessity of sending in their orders at once, in order that we may perfect our arrangements and bring the Enterprise to a speedy and happy termination, as we shall have the distribution take place at as early a day as possible. The Magazines will be promptly mailed to any address desired from the publication offices. Again we would say, send in your orders early, designating which of the Magazines are ordered.

It may seem rather incredulous that we should undertake to supply the Magazines at the regular subscription price and still afford to make so many valuable Presents; but we would remind the reader of the old adage, that "UNION IS STRENGTH," therefore by combining the strength of One Hundred Thousand subscribers to the popular Mouthpieces of the day, and making a special contract with the Publishers for a large number of their publications, we are enabled to do what we propose. This is the secret of our Enterprise. Do you think well of the project? Will you give us your order?

As soon as the Presents are awarded, holders of Tickets will be promptly notified what Presents they are entitled to, when they should immediately inform the undersigned how they will have them forwarded.

All orders should be plainly addressed—

WILLIAMS & SPRAGUE,
Fultonville, Montgomery Co., N. Y.

N. B.—In order that there may be no error in mailing tickets from us, we would suggest the propriety of persons who may favor us with their orders, that they send a pre-paid envelope with their address plainly written upon it.

E. GRAHAM.
Perryburg, March 20, 1854.

The business will hereafter be conducted by the subscriber, at the old stand, where you will find a very superior selection of

Spring and Summer Goods.

Cheaper than ever for Cash.

My stock embraces every variety of Dress Goods and Trimmings; also numerous pieces varying in price from a 6d to $7 per yard. Boots and Shoes for men, women and children, for Spring and Summer wear; Summer Cloths, suitable in quality and price for men and boys. Our Bonnets cannot be surpassed either for beauty or style; and our Ribbons are just the thing to equip them with.

I have also every variety of Hardware, for either farmers, mechanics, or household use.

In short, everything which anybody needs, can be had here—either cheap Goods, pretty Goods, or good Goods. And if you only call, that is sufficient warrant for a sale; and every time you buy, the richer you get! So, spare not the dimes elsewhere, for they will turn into shillings here. If you don't believe it, try the experiment.
